Attn: Mr. John N. McMahon

Dear Mr. McMahon:

Please accept our heartfelt thanks for your visit and your words to our members at our Tenth Annual Banquet on November 4th. We have received countless congratulations for having obtained a speaker of your caliber for what was, for us, this special occasion. As reflected by the standing ovation your remarks elicited, our members were impressed and pleased by your willingness to take time from your busy schedule to talk to us, by what you had to tell us, and most especially by your willingness to field questions from the floor.

The College of William and Mary and its alumni are intensely patriotic and we assure you of our appreciation and support of the efforts of you and your Agency in defense of America. We know the identities of your employees are regarded in some cases as classified, but we like to imagine that at least a few of our graduates are finding their way into your ranks each year.

With every good wish for the continuing success and progress of you and your associates, we remain

Yours very truly,

Howard Smith, President

John Dayton, Chairman, Banquet Committee
